Columbia Secures Nated Band December 6, For Matinee and Night—Entire State Interested.

Sousa and His Band.

John Philip Sousa.....Conductor
Miss Virginia Root.....Soprano
Miss Nicholine Zedler.....Violinist
Herbert L. Clarke.....Cornetist

Music lovers of Columbia and nearby towns are taking great interest in the forthcoming concert by Sousa and his band and this means all classes of music lovers, because the Sousa organization appeals to all. It appeals with its classic music to those who are well-up in music and with its fiery crashing marches, stirring hearts and quickening pulses to all others. It seems a "cinch" to use trite expression to predict that the concert in Columbia will be a big success, both on account of the high merit and popularity of the band and of Sousa the march king himself.

The band jumps from Cincinnati, Ohio, to Asheville and goes from Raleigh to Washington then to New York to start on a world-wide tour, appearing in only 10 cities in the entire South.

The sale of seats will start Monday, December 5. Mail order filled in the order received. Prices at night 25c., 50c., 75c., $1.00 and $1.50. Matinee prices 25c., 50c., 75c., and $1.00.

Thinking that music-lovers of South Carolina will be interested in knowing just what selections will be rendered by the band at the concert, the management makes public the following programme, which, however, does not include a big list of popular encores:

1. Symphonic Poem, "Les Preludes".....Liszt

"What is life but a series of pre-ludes to that unknown song whose initial solemn note is tolled by death? The enchanted dawn of every life is Love. But where is the destiny on whose first delicious joys some storm breaks not; some storm whose deadly blast disperses youth's illusions; whose fatal hold consumes its altar? And what soul thus cruelly bruised, when the tempest rolls away, seeks not to resist its memories in the pleasant calm of rural life. Yet man allows himself not long to taste the kindly quiet which first attracted him to nature's lap; but when the trumpet signal sounds, he runs to danger's post, whatever be the fight that calls him to its lists, that in the strife he may once more gain full knowledge of himself and all his strength."

Other Numbers.

2. Cornet Solo, "Showers of Gold" (Clarke)—Herbert L. Clarke.

3. Character Studies, "The Dwellers in the Western World" (new)—Sousa

(a) The Red Man.

"And they stood on the meadows with their weapons and their wargear. Painted like the leaves of autumn, painted like the sky of morning."

(b) The White Man.

They sailed, they sailed. Then spoke the mate,

"This mad sea shows its teeth tonight. He curls his lips, he lies in wait, with lifted tusk as if to bite."

Ah that night! Of all dark nights! And then a speck—

A light! A light! A light! It grew, a star-lit flag unfurled;

It grew to be time's burst of dawn; he gained a world; he gave that world its grandest lesson—"on and on."

(c) The Black Man.

"Now, de blessed little angels up in heaven, we are told,

Don't do nothin' all dere life-time 'ceptin' play on harps o' gold."

"Now I think heavn'd be mo' home-like ef wed hyeah some music fall

From a real o' fashioned banjo, like that one upon de wall."

4. Soprano solo, "The Lark New Leaves His Watery Nest," Parker—Miss Virginia Root.

5. Prelude, "The Bells of Moscow"—Rachmaninoff.

6. Humoresque, from "Creole Suite"—Broekhoven.

7. (a) Entre act—Helmsberger. (b) March, "The Glory of the Yankee Navy"—Sousa.

8. Violin solo, "Rondo Capriccioso," St. Saens—Miss Nicholine Zedler.

9. Rhapsody, "Slavonic"—Friedemann.

Edmondson-Seabrook.

The following from the Atlanta Journal of Friday will be read with great interest and pleasure by Mr. Seabrook's many friends in Newberry:

One of the pretty weddings of last evening was that of Miss Katherine Edmondson and Mr. William Buehler Seabrook, which took place at the home of the bride's father, Mr. John E. Edmondson, on North Boulevard. Dr. J. W. Roberts, a former president of Wesleyan college, the bride's alma mater, performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and intimate friends.

The bride entered with her father, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Rogers Winter.

The bride's maid of honor was Miss Frances Seabrook, of Westminster, Md., sister of the groom, and Miss Louise Peddy, of Newnan, bridesmaid. Miss Nancy Hill Hopkins, Miss Jennie Lowry, Miss Marguerite Beck, Miss Obie McKenzie, of Montezuma, were ribbon-bearers.

Tall vases of white roses were effectively arranged in the parlor, where the ceremony was performed, and in the dining room and library pink carnations were used. The porch was enclosed and decorated with bamboo and palms.

The bride's gown was white charmeuse satin, the corsage hand-embroidered, trimmed with seed pearls and rose point lace, the skirt was draped with a cluster of pearls, and her long tulle veil was caught with a chaplet of organe blossoms. Mr. and Mrs. Seabrook left after the reception for a wedding trip to Florida and when they return will be at home with the bride's father.

The bride's traveling gown was blue velvet, braided, worn with a blue chiffon blouse over Persian silk, and her hat was black velvet trimmed with aigrettes and bird of paradise.
